

CONTINUING EDUCATION TRAINING PROGRAM

DIESEL & HEAVY DUTY EQUIPMENT PREVENTATIVE MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN

GOAL

To provide the participant with the skills necessary to perform preventative maintenance on diesel trucks and heavy duty equipment as well as troubleshoot and repair external components.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Jobs can be found as entry level maintenance mechanics.

OUTLINE

Orientation & Safety	25
Fundamentals	25
Diesel Trucks	120
Heavy Duty Equipment	140
Hydraulics	50
Electrical/Electronics	40
Total Hours	400

SCHEDULE

Start: Tuesday, November 30, 2010

End: Thursday, April 1, 2011

No classes from December 23, 2010 – January 2, 2011*

COST

Tuition: $4,750 (includes textbooks)

Required Tooling: $1,250 (Estimate - see attached list)

Participants may purchase tools from any vendor but all items are required by December 13, 2010.*

Specialty tooling is provided.

Registration

Please contact Marie Allison by phone at 570.702.8924 or via email at mallison@johnson.edu to learn how to enroll.

Programs and activities offered as part of Johnson College's Continuing Education Department are not included in the scope of recognition of the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC), the College's accrediting agency.

