

PRESS RELEASE

08/09 – 011

DATE: August 13, 2008

FOR RELEASE: August 17, 2008

HEAD: Johnson College Plans Freshman Orientation

Johnson College will welcome the Class of 2010 to its campus for Freshman Orientation on Thursday, August 21 and Friday, August 22.

According to Melissa A. Ide, Director of Enrollment Management, “To ensure a smooth transition to the college experience, Johnson has prepared a structured program that will be interesting, fun and informative.”

During the two-day session, students will meet with administration and faculty, receive pertinent information regarding their program areas, review College highlights, and receive their e-mail addresses and student identification cards. An introduction to each technical program is also scheduled.

Orientation will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday and Friday and lunch will be provided both days. A special family session will be held on Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to noon.

For further information, students may contact the Admissions Department at (570)702-8900 or e-mail at admit@johnson.edu.
