JOHNSON COLLEGE OFFERING STATE INSPECTION CLASSES

Scranton, PA – March 3, 2009 – Johnson College will hold Pennsylvania State Motor Vehicle Inspection classes on the school's North Main Avenue campus on April 16th, 22nd, and 23rd, 2009 from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. in the Automotive Center. In addition to the classroom hours, requirements also include a two-hour tactile test to be scheduled with the instructor before receiving certification from PennDOT.

The fee for the course is $160 per person plus $6.00 for the course manual. There is an additional charge of $40 each for motorcycle certification and certification for heavy trucks and buses. Registration is limited to 25 people and will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis according to receipt of payment. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age and have a valid operator's license for each class of vehicle for which they seek certification.

Those interested in state inspection classes may download registration forms online at www.johnson.edu or by calling the College at 702-8979. Checks may be mailed to Johnson College, 3427 North Main Avenue, Scranton, PA 18508, Attention: State Inspection. MasterCard, Visa or Discover credit cards are also accepted.

Johnson College was founded in 1912, Johnson College is the region's premier technical college, offering associate degrees in 13 programs. An emphasis on hands-on instruction is supported by a low student-to-teacher ratio. Located in Scranton on a 44-acre campus, Johnson is an accredited, private, non-profit, co-educational institution with a strong tradition of working with regional business and industry to ensure a skilled and qualified workforce.
